THE FIFTEENTH MEETING OF THE CON-VENTION. Gallaudet College, Washington, D. O, March 15, 1898. As announced in the formal call published in the January number of the Annals, the Convention of American Instructors of the Deaf will hold its fifteenth meeting in the Ohio Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, at Columbus, beginning on Thursday, July 28, 1898. The Convention will be called to order at 3 o clock in the afternoon of that day, when addresses of welcome and responses will be made. It is not practicable at this time to publish any program in detail, but members will be interested to know that the Committees on the Normal, Industrial, Oral, Auricular, and Kindergarten sections have been for some time actively engaged in preparing for the work in their respective branches, with every assurance of being able to secure valuable papers, and to arrange for interesting and profitable discussions. The Convention will probably remain in session a week, and members, both active and honorary, will be entertained at the small charge of seventy-five cents per day each. Mr. J. W. Jones, Superintendent of the Ohio Institution, has been appointed Local Committee of Arrange merits, and to him due notice should be given of purpose to attend the Convention. Mr. Jones has assurances from railroad officials that very favorable rates will be granted, but is not able to give details until a later date. All persons desiring to present papers, or wishing to suggest...
