To the reasons that I have already given in a circular, which the subscribers to this volume have seen - mainly the requests of friends and the shortness of my time now - whether sufficient or not, I shall not here add. I there said that the sermons to be published would not be polemic, and any such utterances here are few and far between: but I have not omitted things that may seem so to some, which were really preached formerly, when the truth, as I see it, seemed to demand their retention. My hearty thanks are due, and are hereby tendered, to all subscribers for a response to my proposal beyond my expectations; and I am specially thankful for many letters and short notes - all kind, some touchingly so - received from ministers and members of various religious communions,...
