Course of Study, June, 1892 III. Beginners should be taught by a judicious combination of the word method, letter or spelling method, and the phonic method. IV. When children begin to use a book, train them to stand erect and hold the book in the left hand. I. General Outlines Time, 12 hours a week 1. Oral Lessons: Purpose - to accustom pupils to express their thoughts in simple and correct forms of speech. Material - reading and observation lessons, pictures or whatever the ingenuity of the teacher may suggest. 2. Reading: (a) From the blackboard, short sentences, expressing in the pupils own words, thoughts suggested to them through observation and conversation; such sentences being taken as will easily lead to a gradual recognition of words. Later, the acquaintance with words must lead to the analysis of the spoken word into its elementary sounds, and of the corresponding written word into the letters, or combination of letters, representing those sounds. (b) From a chart, (c) From authorized first readers,...
