Do you recollect what Jesus said in the last lesson, about losing any of those who should come to him? Did you ever read in your library books about good children who died very happy? Have you not sometimes greatly desired to see them? I suppose you have seen and heard of some very wicked people; now the Bible says these go to a different place: have you considered toward which place you have advanced the last week! 41 When he had taught them all these things, what did the Jews do? Why did they murmur? Were they...
