Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Sunshine: And Other Verses for Children Sunshine. The sun rode high, and the dear green Earth Was stirred in her motherly heart with mirth; And to every blossom and dancing spray She gave the grace of a holiday. And oh! what laughter the silver breeze Shook from the leaves of the poplar trees! How the streamlet, with all her sweet blue eyes, Smiled on the sport of the dragon-flies! The flashing humming-bird deeply dipped In the yellow tulip; the blithe bee sipped From the purple, delicate cups of wine That he found on the morning-glory vine. The smallest fly and the least red thorn Were fair with summer and fresh with morn, When who should chance on the sunlit place, But a little girl with a sulky face?
