Never before in one year and in one place were so many Congresses held. The great Exposition, which drew to itself millions of visitors from all parts of the world, afforded special opportunity for this up-to-date Peace Congress, as also for the world-wide publicity of its proceedings. The dominating idea of the Exposition as expressed on every notable occasion was World Peace. This greatest of Peace Congresses became possible by reason of two main contributing factors. First, by the generosity of the Church Peace Union in giving, expressly for Peace Work, to the funds of the Committee of One Hundred on Religious Activities during the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, the sum of Five Thousand Dollars. Second, by the willingness of the American Peace Society to combine its Fifth Peace Congress (which it had planned to hold in Washington, D. C.) with this Congress. This dual action of these our two greatest American Peace Societies quickly secured the hearty co-operation of all other Peace Organizations, thus making it possible even while all Europe was plunged in the most appalling war of all history, to concentrate in one powerful impact upon the public...
